GU CHENKAI

China Graduate of Meros Language school

Japanese Speech Contest was held in TCA. A total of 29 students including 24 participants selected from 148 1st year students and 5 senior volunteers, participated in the event. We interviewed Mr. Gu Chen Kai 1st year student who won the Speech Contest.

Q : Did you have a hard time during the preparation?

A : The hardest part was not to be nervous. I also put an effort on manuscript and presentation practice. Not only Japanese Language teacher who checked on my manuscript but also by teacher in charge of international students. To make it perfect I even practiced more than 20 times at home. I tried not to get nervous during presentation, but still nervous. (laughs)

Q : Please tell us how do you feel?

A : I am very Happy. I didn't show it on my face, but when my name came out for first place, I was very excited and thought my heart going to burst out. I'm glad that I participated this event because I was able to gain confidence and courage through it.

Graduates' Activities

Opening online Cake shop and also active as online confectionery teacher

 Osaka College of Culinary Arts
Patisserie Course (Graduate)

YUNITA NIDYA SUSANTI
Indonesia Graduate of OBKG Japanese Language School

PAPILLON D'OR (Patisserie)

In purpose study Japanese confectionery, I enrolled in Osaka College of Culinary Arts. Because it is difficult to obtain working visa which related to confectionery and my passion on it, so I don't have other choice but to coming back home to Indonesia after graduation.
Currently, I opened an Online cake shop called "PAPILLON D'OR" and also working as an online confectionery teacher through ZOOM. Not only that, I also involved in product development, recipes and food research for three famous Indonesian food companies, "Dezaan Cocoa", "The Gourmet" and "Ranch Market".
As well as that achievement, I got invitation by "Okuzono Japanese Dining" to collaborate in desserts product development and officially commercial. Now, I'm making use all of techniques what I learned in Japan, but also considering do activities in Japan if there is an opportunity.

Working scene

In March 2021, Mr. Gu, a Manga major graduate, was granted a one-year art visa by the Tokyo Immigration Bureau for his past activities. The important point to obtain an art visa after graduation is depend on your activities while schooling and this also the first achievement for TCA since opening. Mr. Gu said, "I was really relieved that able to obtain an art visa safely. During the application, I was worried so much if I can obtain the Visa or not, but surprisingly all went smoothly, and I was glad been helped by school teachers and publishers. I will never forget this gratitude feeling and keep active in the future". The serialization has been decided, and he hopes to be more success in the future. We will follow Gu's lead and continue to support our graduates in obtaining their art visas.

Opening Cake shop in Taiwan

 Osaka College of Culinary Arts
Patisserie Course (Graduate)

CHAN YUANTING
Taiwan Graduate of Kansai College of Business and Language

MADAM Lemon (Patisserie)

I knew nothing about pastry when in Taiwan, and I decided to enroll in Osaka College of Culinary Arts, but I think my decision to study from scratch was correct.
The Good things I've got from Osaka College of Culinary Arts were the chefs were kind, friendly, gave me opinions on opening the business, and I learned a lot I didn't ever know about!
In Addition, the most important thing to do when considering starting a business is to make a proper plan and study the habits of customers in different countries and regions.
At Last, I want to say, "Keep learning new things and knowledges!!" and to fulfill dream "health management" is very important! Keep it in mind and Good luck!

Graduation Ceremony

The 2020 Jikei COM Group Graduation Ceremony and Degree Conferral Ceremony were held in March 2021 and 401 international students from 28 countries and regions started their new life. Graduation ceremony scale was reduced due to prevent spreading of the COVID-19, and only participated by graduates and faculty members. The Ceremony was broadcasted LIVE on the Internet and was viewed by many people, including the students' families.

Mr. Yong Hon Tatt, who cherished the last memories with classmates and served as a graduate representative said encouraging words "Flash back of the days of hard work to graduation and fun memories, it will become an unforgettable Graduation ceremony ever. Even there is happy and loneliness to have this day come, I want to cherish this memory and connect it to my own growth in the future".
To the 81 international students from the Kansai region who graduated this year, we hope that you will use your school life and your study abroad experience in Japan as a positive experience and chase your own ambition. We will never forget you!!

Entrance Ceremony

If I work hard, I can do it too!

 TCA Tokyo College of Eco and Animals
Veterinary Nursing Welfare and Physical Therapy Course (1st year)

KANG ZI XUAN
China Graduate of Intercultural Institute of Japan

Entrance Ceremony view

I was really impressed to attend the Entrance ceremony for the first time. After I saw my seniors' presentations, I have got a confident that "If I work hard, I can do it too!". I will do all my best for next 3 years. My dream and goal are becoming a rehabilitative animal nurse. The nurse I want to be is who understanding pet's health and also know well of pet owner's feeling.
The most attracted reasons I chose this school are can practice with well-equipped facility and learn the actual work from partner companies, beside of learning animal nursing knowledges from a professional instructor. Since there is a dog owner system in school, I am looking forward to learning how to communicate with owners. I hope having a best school life with school friends.
