Showcase Inc. (Programer)

The graduation ceremony was held on March 12th, which was a very sunny and refreshing day for a celebration event. Giri Ramesh from Nepal was awarded a diploma on behalf of TECH.C. He said, "The four years at TECH.C. went by so quickly. When I came to Japan first time, I had studied at Japanese language school in Nagoya. After that, I moved to Tokyo to enter TECH.C. I want to be a grateful person for the Internet service that can make people happy. I learned infrastructure, AI and others at TECH.C. I had a hard time financially, but all my hard work paid off as I could find a job in Japan. I will work hard to make use of what I have learned at TECH.C. and to create a more prosperous and secure Internet society in the future."

KANSAI Area Graduation Ceremony

OSAKA

A graduation ceremony of Kansai area was held on March 5th. 72 International students from 9 countries graduated in Kansai area. Hsiao Yu-Ting, a Taiwan student majored in animation at OCA, received the principal award, and a student of Osaka College of Culinary Arts from Indonesia, Christian Anqasa received the perfect attendance award as a representative of graduates. Many family members from overseas attended to see their child's proud moment. The students wearing their native costumes and Japanese hakama were very brilliant. They were about to cry when sharing their last memories with their classmates. A new life will be started in April, and please take advantage of what you have learned at Jikei.

FUKUOKA Area Graduate Ceremony

 FUKUOKA Integrated Resort & WEDDING, HOTEL COLLEGE

FUKUOKA

A graduation ceremony was held at Hilton Fukuoka Sea Hawk on March 4th, and International students of the FUKUOKA Integrated Resort & WEDDING, HOTEL COLLEGE also attended. The graduation ceremony designated as the last class, had programs such as commendation and school principal greetings, and was very moving with the gospel performance of sister school. At the end of the ceremony, each student was awarded a diploma and received it proudly. They made a lot of Japanese friends at school, reluctantly say goodbye to them. After graduation, they will work at hotels in Japan or return to their countries for university or employment. Please make use of what you have learned at our schools so that your future will be bright!

JINAN LI

China Meros Language School

On April 8th 2019, the COM Tokyo Joint Entrance ceremony was held at the Tokyo International Forum. 184 out of 519 TCA's new students are international students from 18 countries.

Many personages in the industry including Kiyoshi Okuyama, the honorary principal of the school, and guests from abroad gave congratulatory speech. The second part was presented by students and graduates. I interviewed new students who participated ceremony, "At the entrance ceremony, I listened to the presentation of my seniors and was very excited to imagine my future. I liked Japanese animation and manga and studied Japanese on my own for a year. In the future, I want to be a creator who can impress people in the future." Song says with expectant eyes. Li says, "I've known Mr.Okuyama for a long time and was attracted to his industrial design. I was impressed by the teacher's speech."

There might be many difficulties in school life in Japan including language barriers and cultural differences, but let's work hard and change everything into power.

Jihu Jeon

Korea Digital Seoul Culture Arts University

On April 9th (Tue), we held a joint entrance ceremony of the Hokkaido at the Sapporo Convention Center. It was a wonderful sunny day for the ceremony. The new student entered the hall wearing a new suit with a strained face. Mr. Jeon also seemed a little nervous. After the ceremony, the tension might have eased, so he took pictures with classmates and laughed at each other. He exchanged contacts with students in the same department and it seemed he had made friends right away. Let's do the best together for the two years!
