This year, the first beauty pageant and cosplay events were held, and it was very popular! I helped to decorate the dance room as a "cosplay cafe." "When I stood on stage wearing maid cosplay, I was too nervous to even pose the ideal posture. When all the performers finally lined up on the stage, MC suddenly asked us to do own PR, I was not prepared, so I ended up without saying my name and I was regretting it." "The customer cheered me up, so I enjoyed it very much! It was a very good experience because I might be on stage in the future. Both who perform and make the stage worked together, so it became a school festival with a very enthusiastic. I'll come and see as a graduate next year!

in the management of the school festival as an executive committee member. The school festival was busy and lively. As a staff, I had to do various things and felt responsible. I was responsible for the floor where the live performance stage is located. "The school festival was amazing because students from the camera, lighting, and sound departments were active to do the support work behind the scenes. Also, I was impressed by the Japanese Artisan spirit, who took time to prepare for the real show, even though the live performance was just a moment. For me, this moment and feelings are unforgettable.

I participated as a performer at the school festival. I performed on the first day as a vocal club member and on the second day as a volunteer. I thought it was most important to entertain the audience as the performers, so I thought about how to liven up the hall.

On the day, the atmosphere of the hall was very good, and the guests were excited, so I was really happy. The view from the stage was wonderful and great.

I was really glad that I practiced hard during the preparation.

I learned a lot through this school festival. However, not only expressing myself, but also making guests pleased was the purpose of our performance. As a result, I was very pleased that guests and us were very happy and we decided to continue working hard."

Namje, who entered CG and Video Creator's course this year, was also involved in the management of cafes with his fellow students. He went around the school and tried hard to attract customers. Thanks to touting, lots of customers visited to cafe and was very successful. It was the first time to participate in such an event, but I was able to work with Japanese students in the same course and make great memories.

I'm a student from Korea! I wanted to succeed in Japan as a vocalist, so I came to study in Japan! At the school festival, I did a live show and a food stall. On the stage, my Korean friend played an acoustic guitar and I sang in Korean, and I think the audience was very happy. We also opened food stall called 「K-Tok」 to get the guest to know Korean Culture and Topokki was sold out. I'm glad the sales were good. For the international students who want to study music, OSM is worthwhile school because there are many events, many experiences, and every day is fulfilling!

The school festival was held for two days on June 8 (Sat) and June 9 (Sun), 2019. We took advantage of our experience in each field, including bridal fashion shows, unique bar and airline lounge, and entertained our guests at various events. International students welcomed the guests warmly. The first year students of the hotel course was busy to set up a bar that serves their own non-alcoholic drinks. The second year students had a haunted house, and the screams of guests rang through the building. The airline course was able to interact with many guests from children to the elderly through quizzes and snacks picking. It was the first school festival for first-year students, but it seemed enjoyed it with a smile to the end."

It was held in the new school buildings of TCA in Tokyo and Koyo in Kansai. On this day, we introduced schools, courses and international students supporting programs, and presented employment results and company corporate project. It was a good chance to show our facilities and education system.

Furthermore, Gospel in the Tokyo area and Jazz Big Band in the Kansai area were performed. The invited teachers were also very interested in the growth of international students studying in Jikei schools with dreams. The graduates of Japanese language schools joined to talk about the current situation of studying, and the teachers seemed relieved.
