Nationality/Region : Hong Kong The Japanese School Affiliated with Tokyo International University

I enrolled in this school to obtain the qualification of Registered Sales Clerk. During my studies, I gained practical experience in a drugstore through cashier duties, product display and stocking, and cleaning. As the number of foreign tourists increased, I found joy in contributing to the store, especially when providing customer service in Chinese and Cantonese. It is fulfilling when tourists express gratitude. While I can manage daily conversations in Japanese in my daily life, I faced challenges in interpreting the questions in the exam for Registered Sales Clerk, which required not only medical knowledge but also the ability to comprehend complex sentences. Through repeated reviews of what I learned in class, I developed an understanding of specialized terminology and the ability to interpret texts, which I believe played a crucial role in passing the exam. I aspire to make use of my acquired qualification and language skills to excel in my career.
